

GO TRAVEL!

Login

Add Post

Login

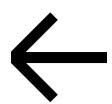

Title

Description

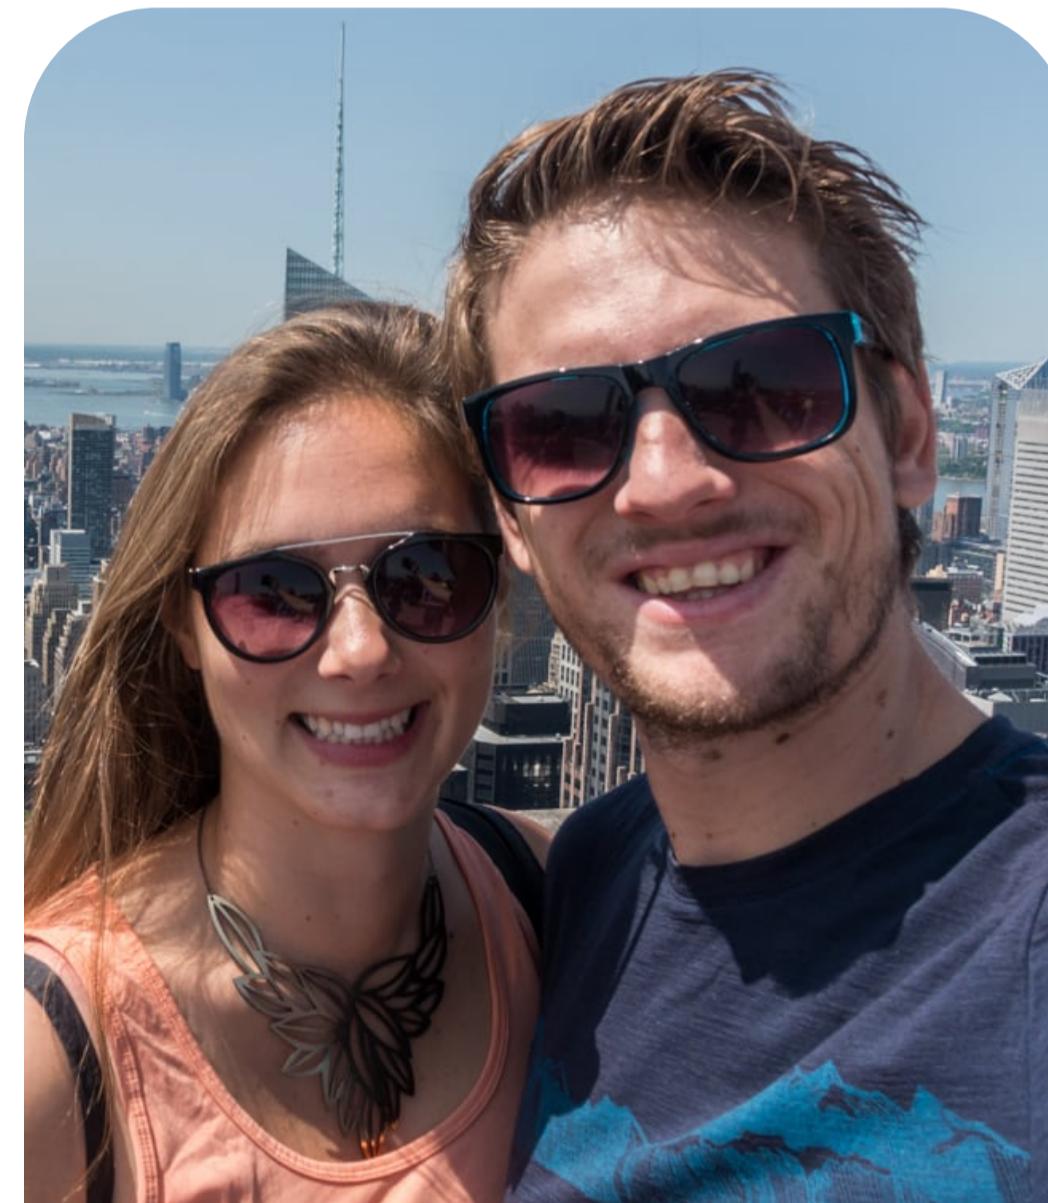

Photo

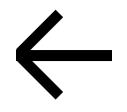

Post

NEW YORK

Login

Login

Username / Email

password

NEW YORK

Login

@userA123

OMG!!! I'm here! NYC is amazing!

We arrived in New York City off a red-eye and were incredibly sleepy. The first order of business was of course coffee. Once traveling into Manhattan, we stopped into the cutest cafe and restaurant, Sant Ambroeus on Madison Ave. The pink cups, coffee bar and dessert cases were like a scene out of the Grand Budapest Hotel.

After fueling up, we took a break on a bench in Central Park and then proceeded to stroll through Bryant Park and into the New York Public Library. The library was massive and breathtaking to say the least.

After a whole lot more walking and then checking into our hotel, we got freshened up for some live music at The Iridium. We watched guitarist and pianist Stanley Jordan perform some incredible jazz, blues, experimental sounds and even some Beatles and Jimi Hendrix covers. I have never been so blown away by a live performance before. The Iridium is right past Time Square so walking through it at night was another surreal experience.

NYC is the best.

Sign up

Username

password

confirm password

email address

Signup